NESSON LAWS—1874.

AN ACT

To amend Section 2nd of "An act to regulate the carrying of passengers between the Islands of this Kingdom," approved January 10, 1863.

Sec. 1. That Section second of the "act to regulate the carrying of passengers between the Islands of this Kingdom" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Before obtaining the said license, it shall be necessary that the vessel for which such license is desired shall be thoroughly inspected by some person to be appointed for that purpose by the Collector General of Customs; and the person so appointed shall be entitled to a fee of three dollars for each inspection and his certificate, which fee shall be paid by the owners of such vessel before the inspector shall proceed on board; and if the inspector shall certify the said vessel to be staunch, and well equipped and of sufficient capacity and accommodation to carry passengers, on presenting such certificate to the Collector General of Customs, the owners of such vessel shall be entitled to receive a license to carry passengers between the Islands of this Kingdom for one year subject to the rules and regulations hereinafter provided; it being expressly understood and enacted, that the force and effect of Article second of the Civil Code entitled "Of the internal trade and commerce" is not changed or altered, but is applicable to goods only.

Approved this 13th day of July, A. D. 1874.

AN ACT

To amend Section 488 of the Civil Code.

Sec. 1. That Section 488 of the Civil Code be and the same is hereby amended by striking out the word "six" in the fourth line and inserting in place thereof the word "four," and by striking out the word "eight" and substituting therefor the word "nine," so that the section as amended shall read as follows:

Sec. 2. Every person liable to the road tax may have his election of paying the same in money or labor, provided always that when he elects to pay the same in labor he shall labor four days annually under the direction of the Board of Education of the district, and further provided, that nine hours shall be considered a full day's work.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and become a law from and after the date of its passage.

Approved this 13th day of July, A. D. 1874.

AN ACT

To promote Agriculture and Industrial pursuits in the Public Schools of the Kingdom.

Sec. 1. It shall be lawful for the Board of Education to include agricultural and industrial pursuits among the branches of instruction taught by the Public Schools of the Kingdom.

Sec. 2. The Board of Education shall have power to prescribe the manner and designate the places in which such pursuits shall be conducted, and also to determine the extent to which they shall be followed, either generally or to suit particular cases.

Sec. 3. For the purpose of this act it shall be lawful for the Board of Education, after due notice to the Minister of the Interior, to use free of rent as much of any government land, not otherwise employed, as shall be advantageously cultivated by the teachers and pupils of any public school, and the teachers and pupils aforesaid shall have the right to continue to cultivate such government land so long as the same shall be otherwise disposed of by the Minister of the Interior, and in case of disposal of the same by the Minister of the Interior, notice shall be given to enable the removal of improvements, and the gathering of growing crops, without loss to the owners thereof.

Sec. 4. Whenever it shall seem the best interests of the Board of Education may also acquire, on such terms as may be agreed upon, land or other government, that may be advantageously employed for the purposes herein stated.

Sec. 5. All net profits arising from agricultural and industrial pursuits under this act, shall belong to the teachers and pupils actually engaged in such pursuits, and shall be divided among the same in such proportions as the Board of Education shall deem proper; but the provisions of this section shall not be deemed applicable to schools otherwise regulated by law.

Sec. 6. All laws at present in force, or that shall be enacted hereafter for the government, discipline and welfare of the Public Schools of the Kingdom, shall in their operation be construed to include the enforcement of the provisions of this act in relation to agricultural and industrial pursuits in said schools.

Sec. 7. This act shall take effect and after the date of its approval.

Approved this 13th day of July, A. D. 1874.

KALAKAUA R.
